Left Hand Brewing to Open “The Garden” on Saturday, August 14

Left Hand’s new outdoor venue will be located next door to their Tasting Room in Longmont, Colorado

LONGMONT, Colo. August 4, 2021 – Left Hand Brewing Co., one of the original pioneers in craft brewing and renowned for their innovative craft beer festivals, is opening a new outdoor venue in Longmont, Colorado. The Garden opens on Saturday, August 14 at 1245 Boston Ave., directly east of their Tasting Room. Festivities to celebrate their new location will take place throughout the weekend with live music, food trucks, and a custom bar serving their award-winning beers.

Nestled alongside St. Vrain Creek, the 41,000 square foot location features shaded, open-air seating with a capacity of up to 450 guests. Extensive landscaping brings an inviting park-like quality to the location and a custom ROXBOX container is the structural highlight. Outfitted to serve a rotating list from six taps, the ROXBOX bar will be pouring a variety of Longmont exclusive, small batch beers from the brewery’s pilot system. Cans of year-round and seasonal favorites will also be available along with non-alcoholic options and Present CBD-Infused Sparkling Water.

“We’ve made our home in Longmont since 1993 and we’ve continued to invest in our original location,” said Eric Wallace, President and Co-Founder of Left Hand. “The lot space we’ve owned at 1245 Boston Ave. has long been envisioned as an outdoor venue, and we are thrilled to finally be turning that vision into reality. The Garden is a new and exciting way to pursue our mission of building community around beer, this time in the fresh air under blue skies.”

Left Hand has several plans in store for The Garden. “First and foremost, The Garden is a new community spot where our fans can gather and revel in independent craft beer and the great outdoors,” said Jill Preston, Director of Marketing & Hospitality at Left Hand. “We also have a robust lineup of musicians coming this season, highlighting our incredible local music scene while providing a new venue to support local food trucks. Movie nights, game nights, new annual festivals and events, and more are all in the works! Just like we’ve done with our Tasting Room, we’ll build the venue around our fans.” The Garden will also be available in 2022 for private event bookings.
