Drink America's Stout this St. Patrick's Day!
Get Ready for Stouts & Shenanigans with Left Hand Brewing

LONGMONT, Colo. March 10, 2020 No green beer here! Just the soft roastiness and super smooth experience of Milk Stout Nitro from Left Hand Brewing! Whether you pour hard from the bottle, enjoy straight from the can, or experience your cascading pour fresh from the tap, it's the perfect pick for Stouts & Shenanigans on a very lucky holiday. To celebrate in style, drink America's Stout this St. Patrick's Day and join Left Hand Brewing at one of their many events this week across the country, leading up to the big day.

Few beers are more typically Irish than a stout, and Milk Stout Nitro is a fan favorite, voted 5 years in a row into the "Best Beers in America" by the American Homebrewers Association. The addition of nitrogen to a beer gives it much smaller bubbles, creating a smoother, creamier mouthfeel. Milk Stout Nitro continues to be regularly featured as a top stout internationally including recent coverage in The Irish News, Paste, Rachael Ray Magazine, and Thrillist.

Kick up your heels at events featuring Milk Stout Nitro near you. If you are lucky enough to live close by the Left Hand Brewing Tasting Room, located at 1265 Boston Ave in Longmont, Colorado, join the brewery for their annual St. Patrick's Day Celebration. The Tasting Room will be featuring a Keep the Glass promotion with custom Spiegelau stout glasses as well as traditional Irish fare including corned beef & cabbage. FROM OUR HAND TO YOURS.™

In 2011, Left Hand made history and pioneered the way for beer drinkers to enjoy a draft-like experience at home with the release of Milk Stout Nitro bottles and the hard pour. In 2017, Left Hand was back at it again with the first ever U.S. production run of a U.S.-made nitro widget can from Ball Corporation. With the widget inside technology, nitro fans can take the beer on the go and drink a perfectly smooth and creamy Milk Stout Nitro right from the can.

This St. Patrick's Day, raise a glass with Left Hand's employee-owners and drink an American craft stout! For more information on Left Hand Brewing, their nitro series, or to find Milk Stout Nitro near you, visit www.lefthandbrewing.com
